COMING EVENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kluge will entertain the Westworth Club Saturday evening at their home in W. Sibley street.

J. W. Young of the American Art Galleries of Chicago in his address, before the Hammond Women's Club Saturday evening will endeavor to bring more fully before the club members the realization of the importance of the art of this country to industry and life itself and that it is the duty of every man and woman who wishes to make any pretense to culture to acquaint themselves with this art. The art committee of which Mrs. George R. Streeter is chairman is in charge of the meeting which will open at three o'clock at the Masonic temple. They will have displayed the greatest piece of American art. The program will also include a harp solo by Mrs. Charles H. Lavers and a group of readings by Mrs. William Welch with accompaniment by Mrs. Lavers. Miss Leda Forsyth who appeared with Gertrude Farrar in "Koenigsinder" will sing. The final number will be a group of child impersonations by Mrs. Welch accompanied by Mrs. Lavers at the harp and Mrs. Lydia Wolter VanGilder, soloist.

Cards were the entertainment at the meeting yesterday afternoon of Circle No. 1 at the home of Mrs. Jacob Weiss, 47 Douglas street, the prizes in the games being won by Mrs. Joseph Miller and Mrs. Leonard Knoerzer. The consolation prize was awarded to Mrs. Clarence King. Pedro was played and as the conclusion of the games the hostess served refreshments. On account of the Lenten season there will be no more meetings until after Easter. Mrs. L. Ward of State Line street will be the first post-Lenten hostess.

The next Columbia Club party will be given next Thursday by Mrs. Lawrence Cox at her home in South Hohman street. Mrs. Cox will be hostess at luncheon at one o'clock followed by cards.

CASCARETS SELL TWENTY MILLION BOXES PER YEAR

Best, safest cathartic for liver and bowels, and people know it.

They're fine! Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy or constipated.

Enjoy life! Keep clean inside with Cascarets. Take one or two at night and enjoy the pleasant, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Wake up feeling grand. Your head will be clear, your tongue clean, breath right, stomach sweet and your bowels active. Get a box at any drug store and straighten up. Stop the headaches, bilious spells, bad colds and bad days—brighten up. Cheer up. Clean up! Mothers should give a whole Cascaret to children when constipated, bilious, feverish or if tongue is coated—they are harmless—never gripe or sicken—Adv.

Hammond Resident Has Awful Experience

"I was twice confined in hospitals, in the last one nothing but cruel water was injected into me 4 times a day, as my stomach would not retain any food. I suffered terribly; was reduced to a skeleton. My folks saw an ad of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has surely saved my life. I weigh 150 lbs. now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Summers Pharmacy, Ridgeley Drug Stores in Gary and Central Drug Store, Indiana Harbor. —Adv.

be overlooked. After the initiatory ceremonies, an old fashioned social session is scheduled on the Hooversized plan, however. East Chicago lodge is now in the midst of a six weeks membership drive which ends February 28th and from the great and good natured rivalry existing between the patriotic red, white and blue teams, captained by Walter L. Spencer, Dr. Charles T. Johns and L. A. Booth respectively, the membership of the Elks in East Chicago will be increased by easily fifty to seventy-five new members from the way the teams are interting themselves. Next month will undoubtedly witness the exemplification of the honors of membership to the largest class of Elks that has ever been held in northern Indiana. Exalted Ruler J. S. Dewey has the members working harmoniously and under his administration East Chicago lodge has progressed splendidly. Hammond lodge No. 455 will be well represented to participate in the festivities Saturday evening.
